JIM DODD, Proprietor.

Talk about braying asses. The town is full of them. McBrayer's whiskey is only to be found at the Empire Saloon. And when it's found it stays.

En. Regna of the Empire Saloon has made a new deal which will touch the hearts, or at least the palates of many a thirsty wanderer. He keeps "half-and-half" on draught and serves a most delicious and cool beverage, far superior to "plain" beer.

J. J. Williams the well-known Artistic Photographer is making a specialty of portraits on Watch Dials and Silk Handkerchiefs. Complete sets of Lantern slides lectures can be had at the gallery. For they are sold at a reasonable figure by the dozen or by the hundred.

Parties desiring the services of carpenters, cooks, plantation laborers, mechanics and domestic servants can be supplied with good and reliable people by calling at the Bureau. Mutual Telephone 274.

LOCAL NOTES.

The China is not yet sighted.

The Kinai will arrive to-morrow morning.

The Circuit Court was lazy this morning. The native jury met this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The Cousin's Society met at the residence of F. W. Damon last Saturday night.

The Rev. Mr. Hutchins finished his discourse at the Central Union last night before a large audience.

A new hotel has been opened at Kailua, Hawaii. Miss Paris has charge of it.

Band Concert by the National's tonight at the "only" Sans Souci.

The Bicycle meet on Thanksgiving's day will be an immense success. Our local boys will see some fun.

President Dole will return to his capital to-morrow in the Kinai. The usual amount of jailers and jailbirds will be at the wharf.

A fishing and a hunting party which have visited the outlying districts returned last night after having enjoyed several days first class sport and bringing home a large booty.

The American League is now selling tickets for its annual celebration. The feast will take place at Independence Hall and Park, now the most prominent recreation grounds near Honolulu.

The native boys who some time ago drove one of Sam Graham's horses to death have each been fined $60. As none of them has got a bean Mr. Graham will be unable to recover his loss. The horse was valued at $200.

A big auction sale is taken place at the offices of H. W. Schmidt and Sons to-day. A stock of poetry will probably be sold at private sale to the Paradise or the Advertiser.

A large number of visitors called at the numerous bathing places at Waikiki yesterday. The weather was superb and all Honolulu seemed to enjoy a pleasant outing.

Captain Cordes who acts as commander of the mounted police caught one of the patrolmen sleeping last night. The new "boss" extracted the stirrups from the horse of the man and brought them to Hitchcock as a triumphant token of vigilance on his part.

A most elegant dinner was given to Consul-General Fujii last Saturday at Sans Souci, by a number of prominent Japanese gentlemen. The Quintette Club was in attendance and Mr. Fujii's many friends were profuse in proving their sincere desire for his return to these sunny isles. Mr. and Mrs. Fujii will leave in the China.

From Laysan Island.

The barkt. Planter, Captain Underwood, arrived today from Laysan Island. The vessel left the island 24 days ago and brings a full cargo. Governor Freeth arrived in her looking as healthy as ever. Nothing was heard about the disappeared steam launch or the absconding Jap. Probably he has met the Chinese navy and got into hot water. There was nothing new on the island.

CINDERELLA.

Dailey As, An Orator.

The two performances of Cinderella presented last Saturday, were very pleasing to the large audiences that greeted the spectacular play.

In the evening Mr. Dailey found it necessary to explain that no possible political importance or idea could be credited to the cleverly arranged transformation scene, in which the friendship between Hawaii and American was allegorically represented. It is hardly possible to believe that Honolulu, at least outside the missionaries can contain such narrow-mindedness and idiocy, as that displayed by the busy bodies, who thought that Dailey's magnificent scene was meant for political purposes. It was just as well that he gave them a piece of his mind.

Miss Stockmeyer danced her Hawaiian dance, and was equally graceful and clever in her American ballet as in her first public attempt of the hula koi. Her rendition of the Maui Girl and Like no a Like, simply brought the house down, and she was obliged to respond to an encore. It is hoped she will repeat her Hawaiian venture next Wednesday at Mr. Dailey's benefit.

A Procession.

It was about three o'clock yesterday morning.

The moon shone brightly and Honolulu resembled—barring the smell—the original Paradise of Sereno Adam and Sereno Eva.

The mounted police-men were asleep, and the remnants of the never-sleepers were as usually awake.

While Mary Ann quietly was "hooking" the stirrups under his sleeping patrolmen a mysterious procession passed along the road to Waialua.

First came one carriage, (two flasks, one dog.) Then another, (more flasks, guns and dogs.) A third followed closely after (more do, do, do.) Fourthly, a vehicle with operaglasses and survey instrument. Then followed a magnificent horse pulling a lawyer or two. No 6th disclosed hunting licenses (with one exception.) Seven drove fast, and cock-pheasants dropped as by a miracle into the carriage. The eight and the last seemed to be ornamented with glaring eyes, that according to evidence could look across mountains through hills, and recognize people way off in the desert.

What did that procession mean? What was its object? Who got the pheasants?

These are the questions, Mr. Hitchcock, that should not be kept sub Rosa!

The amount of red dirt brought back by the funeral, if such it was, is a serious loss to Waialua Road Board and should be returned without delay.

Sans Souci Forever.

A moonlight concert will be given at Sans Souci tonight, and the beautiful weather will tempt the whole of Honolulu to visit the magnificent seaside resort, and there enjoy the fresh breeze, a cool bath and the finest music which can be rendered in Honolulu. Not to speak of the hospitality of the genial host.

The following is the programme selected by Professor Libornio:

BEDS of WOVEN WIRE!

The Luxury OF THE 19th Century

A Mysterious Tale.

Did anybody ever hear how the banana first was grown? How the milk got in the coconut; when mango seed was sown; From whence the natives came to people this fair land, And when they died, where they all went, the happy dandy land?

These facts are all mysterious, and no solution yet. And there's other mysteries quite as deep which are not fathomed yet: Who was it ran the optum ring, got in the liquor free, How was it Customs men were blind, detectives could not see?

Whose going to be the Tammany King of this most pious town, Who'll start the Show, to whom shall we all plunk the "needful" down? Who will be Boss, and run the firm, who will be the Buckley be, To do it on the Frisco plan of the Great Republic free?

One thing we know that BAILEY'S BEDS are made of WOVEN WIRE. They give us comfort, peace and rest, and are all that we desire; He takes no part in politics, but does the best he can, To please his friends, and show that he's the WOVEN WIRE MAN!

HIRES ROOT BEER

HIRES ROOT BEER!

Root Beer

The most APPETIZING and WHOLESOME TEMPERANCE DRINK in the world. TRY IT. Ask your Druggist or Grocer for it.

C. E. HIRES, PHILADELPHIA

Morning, Noon, Night

Good all the time. It removes the languor of morning, sustains the energies at noon, kills the weariness of night—HIRES ROOT BEER—delicious, sparkling, appetizing. Good as a tonic, good as a tonic.

It is beyond all dispute a wonderful health-giving drink, and it is very easy for any one to understand why this is so. The root, herbs, barks and berries, from which HIRES ROOT BEER is skillfully made, are the identical things from which physicians get their most helpful remedies. For instance, Do you believe that sarsaparilla is a valuable remedy? Well HIRES ROOT BEER contains more sarsaparilla than many sarsaparillas. The same is true as to other ingredients.

It is doing more to advance practical temperance than many people realize. It is used and recommended by the most cautious and conservative temperance people. The most scrupulous abstainer can enjoy HIRES ROOT BEER himself, and recommend it to others as an agreeable and healthful substitute for the strong drink which he opposes.

It is a home-made and homelike beverage. It is very easily prepared, and if the plain directions are followed, it will always be good. Every member of the family, from the baby to the grandfather, can enjoy HIRES ROOT BEER, and every one of them will have better health for each swallow they take. It improves the appetite, purifies the blood, and tones the whole system. Children especially delight in HIRES ROOT BEER. Its preparation interests them, and its use does them good. In thousands of homes, "HIRES ROOT BEER that mother made," will be among the happiest recollections of childhood.

BEWARE! Do not confound it with other Rootbeer preparations, as it is entirely unlike anything else of the kind. Beware of extracts advertised for making Rootbeer, as they are composed chiefly of coloring matter and oils to give them flavor, which excite the nerves and cause nausea.

Hires Improved Rootbeer packages makes really the most harmless of our fashionable drinks, yet nourishing and strengthening the blood. It cleanses the system of the poisonous humors that develop in kidney and urinary diseases, and in fact, in any case that arises from an impure state of the blood.

Hires Improved Rootbeer is offered to the public with full confidence of its merits. It contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and an infant may take it with perfect safety.
